Summer Village of Jarvis Bay – Municipal Planning CommissionOctober 4, 2022*Agenda Item*19 Jarvis Bay Drive (Lot 10, Block 1, Plan 2350EO)*Development Permit Application*Background:

An application was submitted by the registered owner for a home occupation development permit at 19 Jarvis Bay Drive (Lot 10, Block 1, Plan 2350EO). This property is located in the R (Residential) District in the Summer Village of Jarvis Bay.

The intent of the home occupation would be to provide a physio clinic for dogs that would be a one dog per hour service. There is a large area for parking on the property and the business would be out of the garage and entail the occupation to be in service 1-2 days a week from the hours 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. The homeowner would be the only employee and there will be no signage or outdoor storage. The definition for Home Occupation in the Land Use Bylaw is “means any occupation, trade, profession, or craft carried on by an occupant of a residential building as a use secondary to the residential use of the building. No cannabis retail sales or cannabis production and distribution operations shall be permitted as a home occupation.”

Discussion:

This application is before MPC for the following reason:

1. Home Occupation is listed as a discretionary use and therefore the decision must come from the Municipal Planning Commission.

Recommendation:

A “discretionary use” means a use which may be compatible with other uses in the district, for which a Development Permit may be issued upon an application having been made.

After reviewing the application and all relevant planning documents, it is the recommendation of administration to approve the application as a discretionary use, the proposed development complies with the regulations. This is the first application for a home occupation permit.

Conditions:

If approved, Administration would recommend the following conditions:

September 27, 2022

1. The Home occupation commences and continues in the manner applied for and complies with the regulations and specifications of the Land Use Bylaw under which this permit was issued.
2. The development permit is only valid for one (1) year from the date of issuance. A new development approval will be required at that time should the applicant wish to continue with the Home Occupation use.
3. Any change in use or intensification of this home occupation will require a new development permit.
4. There shall be no exterior display or advertisement, except as provided for in section 2.2(11) of the Land Use Bylaw.
5. The applicant is responsible to comply with any other regulations or approvals required by any other provincial or federal agency.
6. No person other than a resident the dwelling unit shall be employed.
7. There shall be no outside storage of materials, commodities, or finished products.

Authorities:

For a discretionary use, the MPC may:

1. Approve an application a development permit:
 - a. With or without conditions,
 - b. Based on the merits of the proposed development, including its relationship to any approved statutory plan, non-statutory plan, or approved policy, affecting the site,
 - c. Where the proposed development conforms in every respect to the Land Use Bylaw; or
2. Refuse an application for a development permit based on the merits of the proposed development, even though it meets the requirements of this land use bylaw; or
3. Subject to the provisions of section 2.4(2), the Municipal Planning Commission shall refuse an application for a development permit if the proposed development does not conform in every respect to this Land Use Bylaw.

Decision:

In order to retain transparency of the Commission, Administration recommends one of the following:

1. Approve the application with or without conditions (Section 642 of the MGA), or
2. Deny the application stating reasons why (Section 642(4) of the MGA).

Letter of Intent: 19 Jarvis Bay Drive.

We are applying for Development for a Home Occupation, for Physio Clinic.

It is a one dog per hour service that would be in our back yard garage. Parking is available in front of garage for dog owner.

The garage would have walls demised for a 10x10 physio office.

Thank-you for your consideration,

Jarvis Bay Drive
