- The development permit is only valid for 1 year from the date of issuance. A new development application and approval will be required at that time should the applicant wish to continue with the tourist home use.
- Tourist homes shall be contained within the principle building and therefore garage suites shall not be used.
- Notwithstanding part three, section 2(3) of the Land Use Bylaw, no recreational vehicle shall be used as accommodation for the tourist home guests.
- The maximum number of people staying overnight in the tourist home shall be 14.
- The operator of the tourist home shall provide the Summer Village Office with their name and phone number(s) and of at least one person (adult) that is authorized to act in the operator's absence. The operator is responsible for informing the Summer Village Office of any changes to this information. The operator shall provide adjacent landowners with this information.
- The tourist home shall always abide by all Summer Village of Jarvis Bay bylaws including the community standards bylaw regardless of who is occupying the home. This includes (noise, nuisance, and littering etc.). A summary of key bylaws will be provided by administration.
- Tourist homes shall not display any sign advertising the tourist home.
- Adequate parking must be in place on the driveway, a minimum of one stall per bedroom.
- The development permit does not exempt the owner/operator of the tourist home from complying with any federal, provincial, or other municipal legislation.
